

Container-track DV63-01 for Simoloyer® CM100-CM900

Application

Handling of material-containers of Industrial Simoloyer®:

- turning, moving, lifting for:
  - charging & discharging;
  - installation at Simoloyer® platform;
  - pre-installation of air-locks;
  - transportation & storage;

Dimensions

|                          |                                                              |
|--------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------|
| L x B/W x H              | 1020 x 860 x 1300 mm                                         |
| net weight               | 235 kg                                                       |
| power                    | battery, 24V (2x12V rechargeable)2x DC servo drive motor |
| load                     | 230 kg max.                                                  |
| vertical range (lifting) | 690 mm                                                       |
| rotation (turning)       | 360°                                                         |

Options

Connector-adapter for powder-containers for Simoloyer® CM100 through CM900 as well as customized adapters for any kind of commercially available other containers.

